

International Army Will Be Organized By General Eisenhower

Atlantic Pact Leaders Agree On Defense Plan For Europe Peace

(By Arthur Gavshon)

BRUSSELS, Belgium, Dec. 19—(AP)—The 12 Atlantic Alliance nations announced today General Dwight D. Eisenhower will begin early in 1951 to organize an international army to keep the peace in Europe.

A communique issued at the end of a two-day conference said the Atlantic Pact chiefs also agreed on plans for German participation in "an integrated force under a centralized command."

The 12 nations earlier had approved the appointment of Gen. Eisenhower as the supreme commander for the international force.

The terse communique said "German participation would strengthen the defense of Europe."

The bulletin emphasized that all plans agreed upon by the Allies are destined for purely defensive purposes.

The council of 12 foreign ministers asked the United States, Britain and France, as the occupying powers in Germany, to "initiate" talks with the West German government on the question of getting Germans into the force.

Expand Armaments

The council also agreed to set up a sort of high command—officially called a "defense production board"—to speed up and expand the manufacture of armaments.

In doing so the council was accepting recommendations made to them by the defense ministers of the 12 pact nations who met here yesterday. The aim is to speed up production of all sorts of war material—including aircraft, ships and tanks.

U.S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson told the ministers there would be a statement from Washington soon putting U.S. forces now in Germany under General Eisenhower's command, since the two divisions represent the nucleus of the international force.

Acheson said: "It is essential that all the nations party to the Atlantic Pact put the forces now in being in those nations under the command of the supreme commander."

The U. S. secretary added that the forces now available in the pact countries were "not adequate, and must be built up with the utmost speed."

He pointed to the U. S. declaration of national emergency, the appropriation of huge defense funds and the partial curtailment of civilian production, and urged the Atlantic partners to follow suit.

The man who led the western Allied forces to victory in World War II was named by President Truman at the request of the foreign and defense ministers of the 12 pact nations, now meeting here to organize the force.

Along with the formal approval of Eisenhower, who had been suggested as the leader by practically everyone connected with the formation of Europe's defenses, the pact members met today to approve finally a series of other decisions creating the new international army, to include German ground and air units.

The program, adopted yesterday in defiance against threats from Russia that rearming Germany would violate existing treaties, calls for an international force of 55 to 60 divisions, plus air and sea arms. It aims at a total force of 1,000,000 men by the end of 1953.

Popular In Europe

It had been a common assumption for months that "Ike"—who has a tremendous personal popularity in Europe—would be given the command as soon as planning of the united defense force had advanced to the point where filling the post became advisable.

The formal appointment was disclosed in an exchange of telegrams between the president and Secretary of State Acheson, who is in Brussels for the North Atlantic Council meetings.

Says Car Prices Fixed by ECA

Truman Announces Law on Them Will be Enforced

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19—(AP)—President Truman said today prices of General Motors cars will be fixed at what the economic stabilization administrator says they should be.

The law will be enforced, Mr. Truman told a news conference in commenting on the action of the General Motors Corporation in halting sales of 1951 model Chevrolets, Cadillacs and Pontiacs after the economic stabilizer, Alan Valentine, ordered a roll-back to levels of Dec. 1.

Valentine acted under the defense production act of 1950. This grants authority to freeze or roll back prices and wages.

A reporter asked if Mr. Truman's comments were to be taken as meaning government action to unfreeze the sales freeze ordered by General Motors. The president said the government will cross that bridge when it gets to it.

Meanwhile, Mr. Truman's request for additional wartime powers was greeted in some quarters as a sign that the machinery is in motion for all-out mobilization.

Hard Blow to India Due to The Death of Sardar Patel

By DeWitt MacKenzie
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

The comparatively new government of India, still struggling with the problems of young statehood, has been dealt a hard blow in the death of Sardar Patel, deputy prime minister and wheel-horse of the regime.

The loss is particularly serious because it comes at a time when Asia is seething with a Red upheaval which is casting a deep shadow across India and her sister state of Pakistan. It is a dan-

Increase Home Decorations

Judging to be on Wednesday or Thursday Nights

The response to the Christmas Home Decoration Contest, sponsored by the Independent Retail Grocers Association, has been exceptionally good the last two days with 32 entries, 14 in the outdoor class and 18 in the indoor class.

Judging will be Wednesday or Thursday nights and all contestants are asked to keep their decorations turned on from 6:00 to 9:30 o'clock those two nights. The judges will be from out of town.

The time of entry has been extended and entries may still be made by calling the Chamber of Commerce office, telephone number 895.

All over town are Christmas trees with their brilliant lights both in the yards and through the windows of the homes. In every section of the city are unusual and beautiful decorations but particularly outstanding is the Crescent Drive addition with the many new homes all in a blaze of color, with many clever ideas worked into the mass lighting. Rudolph, the red nosed reindeer, seems to be nosing around over the roofs with his red nose flashing to Santa that the people in the Crescent Drive section are awaiting his arrival.

The friendly Santa who waves to the passersby every year from the porch on the southwest corner of Third street and Grand avenue is again on the job standing beside a huge Christmas tree so full of lights it may be seen for several blocks.

Yes, it looks like the whole town is ready—ready for a big Christmas.

Santa on Streets And in Stores

Santa is taking off from his busy days just before Christmas to get downtown and meet all of the boys and girls in Sedalia and surrounding communities.

He will be up and down the street and in and out of the stores every afternoon this week and he will be looking for all the kiddies. He is all set to hear what everybody wants for Christmas so he will be sure to get the things they want most in the big bag he will take down their chimney.

Increase Forces To Europe

Gen. Eisenhower To Take up Duties Next Month

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19—(AP)—President Truman said today additional American armed forces will be sent to Europe as soon as possible to join the combined forces under Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's command.

Mr. Truman made the announcement at a news conference shortly after naming Eisenhower as supreme commander of the integrated European defense force.

The President wouldn't say, however, how many American soldiers will be included in the new command, or how soon they will be sent to Europe.

He said they will be sent as soon as possible, as soon as they can get ready.

About 100,000 American ground troops are in Europe now, including combat and constabulary forces. There has been speculation the United States might, under a long-range program, eventually send over five to 10 divisions more. The forces going over in the immediate future would, of course, be much smaller.

In addition to the ground troops, the U. S. has three Air Force fighter groups and three B-29 bombing groups in Europe. There are also American naval forces in the Mediterranean.

No Comment on Guards
A reporter wanted to know from Mr. Truman whether any National Guard divisions will be included in the new forces going overseas. The President said he couldn't answer that.

Mr. Truman said he talked by telephone with Eisenhower last night and the general is coming in to see him. He said it would be up to Eisenhower to pick his own staff.

Eisenhower, the President added, will have the same position in Europe that Gen. Douglas Mac-

Child of Five Lost, Halts Police Car

ATLANTA, Dec. 19—(AP)—The five-year-old walked out of the big, crowded department store and flagged a passing police car.

"Nobody is home now. I got lost from my Mama downtown. She walked too fast."

Old Cattleman Dead at Age 106

ABILENE, Kas., Dec. 19—(AP)—J. B. Edwards, pioneer cattleman and one-time close friend of "Wild Bill" Hickok, peace officer, died early today at the age of 106.

Edwards had enjoyed unusually good health throughout his life although he was rejected for service in the Civil War because of poor teeth. He worked in his garden until past 100 and he walked downtown every day until his 102nd birthday.

Edwards was born Sept. 1, 1844 near Athens, Pa., where his father was foreman of a woolen mill.

In 1870 he rode on a raft of logs down the Allegheny river to Pittsburgh where he took a boat on the Ohio and Mississippi rivers to St. Louis, thence up the Missouri river to Kansas City. He went to Abilene and then to Dodge City where he was partner in a general store and a buyer and seller of buffalo hides.

He returned to Abilene in 1872 and had made his home here ever since, engaging in various businesses such as cattle buying and house building.

Edwards was one of those influential in getting Hickok, who had been an Indian scout and peace officer at Dodge City, to come here as sheriff and restore law and order in Abilene's wilder days.

Dinner Given Forty-three Carrier Boys

Optimist Club And Democrat-Capital Are Hosts

The fifth annual Christmas party given by the Optimist club and the Sedalia Democrat-Capital company for the Sedalia Democrat-Capital newspaper carrier boys was held today noon at the Bothwell hotel.

The meeting opened with the singing of carols by a group of Smith-Cotton high school girls who would their way around the tables singing.

Maurice Hogan, president, presided over the business meeting and the invocation was by the Rev. C. A. Freeberg.

A. W. Haller, president of the Chamber of Commerce was a guest of Claude Boul.

The president introduced Geo. H. Scruton, managing editor of the Democrat-Capital, who made a short talk. George H. Trader, president of the company, was out of town and unable to attend.

The meeting was turned over to Ralph Dow, Jr., program chairman, who presented Paul Mines, circulation manager of the Democrat-Capital and he introduced the members of the circulation department: Paul Schultz, Ray Hains, Darrell Bails and James Cramer and Miss Hazel Lang of the news department.

Mines said there were 36 town carrier boys and 30 from the communities surrounding Sedalia.

On Route Since 1918
Among the outstanding carriers introduced were Eddie Drago of Lincoln, who has been handling the route there since 1918. Starting with three papers to deliver and one of them not a paid customer (the paper sent to the company correspondent in that town) Drago has built up to 77 papers and said Mines, "I never go near him. He just takes care of things." Drago is now associated with his brother, Roy Drago.

Another carrier who has been with the company more than 20 years is Bill Harrison of Fortuna, who was also introduced.

The youngest carrier is Robert Fuchs, nine years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Omer Fuchs of Concordia, who has been carrying the route there for the past four months.

Robert, said Mines, is a good carrier, too. Robert has 16 papers which he always tries to get on the porch of the home, but sometimes misses. He frequently gets off of his bicycle and gets the paper, if he doesn't hit the porch, and puts it there.

On Town Routes
Three carriers have been with the Democrat-Capital for the past six years on town routes, they are Charles Seifner, who also works in the mailing department, Kenneth DeHaven and Junior Cairer who was the only carrier boy unable to attend the party.

Mr. Mines also introduced Sam Gravitt, who has been carrier boy for a number of years and now has the North Side Agency. Mines said that when he had the agency in North Sedalia he was pretty well behind with his deliveries one night and saw a boy on a bicycle. He asked the boy if he knew where certain people lived. He said he did, so Mines just turned the papers over to him and after that Sam was a regular working under him.

The city carriers introduced were: Bob Kelly, Gordon DeHaven, Albert Pringle, Robert Hays, and John Grayson.

The program—Grand Old Opry in seven acts—was introduced by Jud Grayson, program chairman.

Reports Given To Council on Lights and Gas

Missouri Public Service Officials Presented Them

Representatives of the Missouri Public Service gave requested reports on street light installation and gas pressure conditions Monday night in a regularly-scheduled meeting of the Sedalia City Council.

Clinton F. Black, district electrical engineer, reported that to date 461 lamps have been installed, with 110 of the installations requiring larger lamps and necessitating new fixtures. The circuits for the new lamps are series wired and all lights must be completed before a circuit can be opened. Many of the new circuits required rebuilding and rearranging of the present distribution system.

Mr. Black completed his report stating that his corporation is progressing as rapidly as possible and is as anxious to finish the job as the city, since the Missouri Public Service will realize no revenue until the task is completed.

No Definite Completion Date

In answers to questions Mr. Black said he could give no definite estimate as to when the installation will be completed; each circuit presents different problems. He further said there was no way of estimating the number of lights to be installed daily as this too varies with individual problems.

Mr. Black's communication to the council follows:
"Hon. Herb Studer, Mayor and Members of City Council City Hall, Sedalia, Missouri: Gentlemen: In compliance with a request from Mr. Studer, I would like to give the following

Yonpo Airfield Was Abandoned

YONPO AIRFIELD, Northeast Korea, Dec. 17—(Delayed)—(AP)—The U. S. air force today abandoned this major airport near the allied Hungnam beachhead. Army engineers destroyed supplies and disabled aircraft that had to be left behind.

A smaller runway has been built and put into operation inside the shrinking beachhead perimeter.

The Air Force apparently left Yonpo in haste. Army Capt. Hudson D. Brenner of Merrick, Long Island, N. Y., commander of a U. S. Third division unit assigned to close the field, said he found stoves still going in some tents when he arrived at the field this morning.

He said food still was warm on the stoves.

The destruction of disabled aircraft and abandoned supplies was well under way by midday.

Larry Vilmer Is Injured

Was on Parcel Truck Overturned When Hit by Auto

Larry Vilmer, 19, 1012 East Tenth street, postal helper on a parcel post delivery truck was severely injured about 1:24 o'clock when the truck driven by Glenn Johnson, 1503 South Quincy avenue, was struck by a car driven by Mrs. John Rose, 2200 East Twelfth street. The accident occurred at Pettis street and Washington avenue.

Johnson was driving the 6,600 pound Dodge mail truck north on Washington avenue and Mrs. Rose was driving west on Pettis when the collision occurred. The 1946 Pontiac coach driven by Mrs. Rose caught the right side of the large truck at the front part of the fender, the truck spinning around and flipping over on its left side.

The front end of the Pontiac was badly smashed in while the truck was not badly damaged, the right rear fender being smashed in and the body scratched when it went over.

Injury to Head

Vilmer was standing on the step on the right side and was thrown into the cab of the truck. He suffered a severe laceration across the top of his head just above the hair line. Several stitches had to be taken to close the wound. He had a slight laceration of the tongue, suffered several bruises and shock. Vilmer complained of a neck injury. X-ray pictures are to be taken to determine if any bones might have been broken.

He was taken to the hospital in the Gillespie ambulance and was treated by Dr. Gordon Stauffer.

Johnson suffered bruises and a slight laceration on his forehead. He was treated by Dr. E. L. Rhodes and dismissed from the hospital.

Mrs. Rose had a laceration in the top part of her head but she did not go to a hospital.

Mrs. Velma Pilkenton, 1303 East Tenth street, riding with Mrs. Rose escaped any injuries other than being shaken up.

Police are conducting an investigation.

Blast Efforts of Communists as To Major Attack Against Beachhead

By Olen Clements

TOKYO, Dec. 19—(AP)—Allied naval, air and ground forces slammed tons of steel today at Chinese and Korean Reds pressing down on the slim Hungnam beachhead in northeast Korea.

The Allies slowly were giving ground with their backs to the sea.

A delayed field dispatch said the U. S. Air Force abandoned Yonpo airfield, Hungnam's major airport, Sunday. The dispatch had been withheld for security reasons. Army engineers destroyed supplies and disabled aircraft that had to be left.

North Korean Communist troops showed their biggest strength yet around the beachhead.

A U. S. 10th corps intelligence officer said advance combat elements of three wholly reorganized Red Korean divisions had replaced the Chinese Communists on the right flank of the beachhead. He estimated the force at 7,000 to 8,000 men.

Scattered by Artillery
Allied firepower was credited with blasting Communist attempts to mount a major attack against the beachhead.

"Prisoners say they are trying to hit us in force but every time the officers get men massed for an attack our artillery scatters them," said Col. William Quinn, Crisfield, Md.

"They just can't get started." Refugee reports said Chinese Reds were looting abandoned Hamhung, big northeast Korea industrial city six miles inland from Hungnam. Terrified Korean civilians were reported streaming north and south from the looted city.

The Red Korean buildup on the east flank brought determined punches against that section of the Allied line. A field dispatch said the Reds may be trying to capture high ground looking down on Hungnam's busy port.

Artillery fire smashed one such attack and killed an estimated 200 Korean Reds in 20 minutes.

Allied warships slipping through the Sea of Japan's icy waters off Hungnam port pounded 37 concentrations of Chinese and Korean Communists. The big naval guns dispersed one column of attacking Reds with heavy casualties.

Stinging Air Blows
Navy and marine fliers roared off the decks of Carrier Task Force 77 and an escort carrier fleet in stinging blows against the Reds.

The seaborne airmen winged inland as far as 60 miles, bombing, rocketing and machine-gunning troop concentrations. They claimed they killed or wounded 800 Reds.

U. S. Third and Seventh division troops on the ground held off a series of Communist attacks mounted in darkness Monday night and early Tuesday morning.

A 10th corps spokesman said the Reds attacked in almost fanatical fury.

In contrast, the western front north of Seoul was quiet. No direct contact between the U. S. Eighth army and the enemy was reported Tuesday.

But around Hungnam, a 10th corps spokesman said the Communists were building strength for an apparent drive to push U.N. forces into the sea.

Reports Given To Council on Lights and Gas

report relative to the installation of the new street lights.

"To date, we have installed one hundred seventy-eight 2500 lumen lamps, one hundred nine 4000 lumen lamps and ninety-one 6000 lumen lamps, a total of three hundred seventy-seven installed. One hundred two of these involved removing the old 2500 lumen lamps and fixtures.

"We are now working on circuit No. 10 which includes East Broadway from the M.K.T. underpass to Emmet avenue, Crescent Drive to Twelfth street and Twelfth street to Marshall avenue; also, from Broadway to 16th street east of Emmet. This circuit will have twenty-eight new 2500 lumen lamps, forty-eight new 6000 lumen lamps, and will replace two 2500 lumen lamps with 4000 lumen lamps and six 2500 lumen lamps with 6000 lumen lamps. We expect to have this circuit burning in the next two weeks.

"This will be a total of Four Hundred Sixty-one lamps installed with one hundred ten of these being replacements with larger lamps including removal of the old fixtures.

"The whiteway system on Lamine, Osage and Main streets has the concrete base poured and the steel poles and fixtures installed. We will have to completely rebuild our present distribution lines on these streets so that we will have the clearance to install the fixtures on the wood poles and the circuits to operate them.

"The street lights are fed by independent circuits which are used solely for this purpose and cannot be used for any other service. When this program started, this system consisted of seven of these circuits, each serving street lights for a definite area. As we are adding so many lights to these circuits and as they will include so much more area, these will have to be made into fifteen circuits when completed. These are what we call series circuits and burn similar to the small Christmas-tree lights; that is, they cannot be opened at any one point without putting out the entire circuit in which they can be installed because in dividing these circuits, the adjacent circuit must always be ready so they can all be cut over in one day. If we did not work in this order there would be times when we would have to leave one or two entire circuits off for some time.

"The main factor in making this work so slow is the rebuilding and rearranging of our present distribution system to provide clearance for the street lighting circuits and the fixtures. Most of these new lights must be mounted higher, which requires taller poles in many cases. During the war we were not permitted to do the maintenance that we would have liked to do. Some lines and equipment had to be installed without proper clearances and in any manner to keep service on.

"Many of these conditions are being corrected along with the street lighting program which will result in not only a better operating street lighting system but in generally improved service.

"Mo. Public Service Co. "C. F. Black, Dist. Elec. Engr." Mike Giokaris, gas superintendent, explained the gas pressure situation. The majority of the local trouble hinges around size of gas mains and increased home heating. Many gas mains in this city were constructed for cooking and hot water heating alone. Since the installation of such mains, the home-heating percentage here has jumped from six per cent to over 60.

To combat this problem requires the re-laying of many present lines. This is proposed in the corporation's schedule for next year.

New System Planned

According to Mr. Giokaris, the present plan impounds switching the present low-pressure system (about three ounces) to an intermediary system of one pound. Before this can be completed, regulators must be installed in every home using gas in Sedalia for reasons of safety. In the meantime, gas will be shuttled when possible from areas of higher pressure to those where the pressure is low through subsidiary mains.

Bearing out his statement on increased household heating in this city, Mr. Giokaris stated 8½ million cubic feet of gas was used locally within 24 hours Thanksgiving day, a new record for Sedalia.

In other business, the Council let the contract for the construction of a district sewer in Sewer District 72 to the Howard Construction company for $25,409.75, within the City Engineer's estimate.

Bids will be accepted for construction of a sewer in District 74, starting tomorrow.

The Council approved an ordinance allowing the mayor to convey an area in Liberty Park to the Jennie Jaynes Lewis foundation becomes defunct, the land reverts to the city.

Interest coupons on park improvement bonds and the public sewer bond issue totaling $450 were burned in the meeting.

The Council approved payment of $1168.75 for recently-purchased police uniforms.

Councilman Emery Ellsworth reported the purchase of the Belle Stephens tract in the proposed airport site, reducing the land needed to 80 acres.

The next meeting of the City Council will be January 4, since the regular date falls on a holiday.

Price Controls Will Not Include Key Food Items

By Drew Pearson

(Copyright, 1950, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

WASHINGTON.—It looks as if the cost of certain key food items isn't going to be controlled very soon, after all.

Price administrator Mike Di Salle who came to Washington prepared to do a job for the housewife got a rude shock when he read the price-control law thoroughly. For the farm lobby had neatly inserted certain exceptions to price control, and one of them is grain. In brief, Di Salle has no power whatsoever to control the price of grain or any food made from grain.

So Di Salle will have to go back to Congress in January and get the law rewritten.

Aside from this the new price czar has decided that he will not try to control a whole variety of prices, but will stick chiefly to a few cost-of-living items plus basic metals and war production raw materials.

NOTE.—Di Salle arrived in Washington from Toledo, Ohio, to find he had no telephone, no
staff, and no full legal power to stop price raises. All he had was a heap of angry letters from housewives. At first he was tempted to buy a return ticket to Toledo, but he has been getting to work at 6 a.m., going to bed after midnight, and is gradually working order out of chaos.

Russian War Plans

Outguessing the Kremlin is extremely difficult these days, but here is how American experts, trained to do this job, size up the immediate war future.

No. 1 Soviet strategy will probably be to grab off weak and isolated nations one-by-one.
No. 2 will be to lure the United States into committing men and resources in a big war in Asia. In this case Russia would throw enough armament into the battle to aid local Communists to hold down American strength.

No. 3. While we were tied up in Asia, Russian armies would drive across Western Europe. The latter move is not expected this year, however. The Kremlin wants to entrap us in other areas first.

A summary of Soviet war strategy can be paraphrased as follows: "Russian policy is to expand its borders as far as the indifference or timidity of its neighbors allow, and to hold or draw back when met by determined resistance, and wait for a new chance to spring
at its victims."

Next probable Soviet victim will be French Indo-China, already torn with Communist revolt. Siam, Burma and Malaya would probably follow.

Another weak spot which may fall to Russia without a battle is Iran. Already, Soviet pressure has caused Iran to ban rebroadcasts of the Voice of America and the British Broadcasting Company on local radio stations. Meanwhile, a secret Russian station has been calling Kurd tribes to revolt.

Truman and MacArthur

President Truman came into a cabinet meeting some time ago carrying a copy of the New Republic, the liberal weekly magazine.

During the cabinet session, Secretary of Defense Marshall complained about the difficulty of getting cooperation from General MacArthur. He indicated that MacArthur was a law unto himself. Truman listened, finally held up a copy of the New Republic.

"This is the way to handle that bird," he said.
Cabinet members, after the meeting, immediately sent for copies of the magazine. It contained an article by former Secretary of the Interior Harold Ickes criticizing MacArthur for violating directives from Washington.

Happy Chandler's Tears

Senate colleagues always knew baseball
Commissioner A. B. (Happy) Chandler as one of the happiest men in Congress when he served as Senator from Kentucky. But his smile turned to tears at his annual banquet for major league club owners in Tampa.

Happy had just been informed by his guests that his $65,000-a-year contract would not be renewed.

No one was expected to show up for the banquet that followed, but Chandler went through with it nonetheless. News reports that the party "proceeded without a hitch" were wrong. It started at 8:00 p.m.—two hours late.
All but New York Giants' Horace Stoneham and St. Louis Cardinals' Fred Saigh came. Saigh is reported to be the big gun behind Chandler's ouster.

The unhappy host refused to take his customary seat at the head table but sat by himself with his back to his guests. Several times he was forced to leave the room to wipe his eyes.

Chandler, sitting alone, said he was sitting where he felt he belonged. Once he sent out for a box of cigars and presented them to Joe Cronin of Boston as an ironic gift for Cronin's anti-Chandler vote.

The atmosphere was tense and electrifying.
Hardly anyone dared speak to other guests.
Branch Rickey of the Pittsburgh Pirates, Cincinnati Reds' Warren Giles and Bill Wrigley of the Chicago Cubs carried on whispered conversations.

Ford Frick, president of the National League,

during the banquet whispered to William Har-ridge, president of the American League:

"What an unusual feeling. It's ghostlike."

"Not one man here is enjoying his food," Harridge whispered back. "Mine is stuck right here." He pointed to his throat.

As the club owners departed after the banquet, Chandler shook hands with them. His smile was forced. Each wished him well—perhaps in his next job.

Austin Bows

Philosophical ex-Senator Warren Austin of Vermont, now U.S. ambassador to the United Nations, was sitting in the delegates' lounge
at Lake Success the other day, when visitors asked him how he felt in view of the dangerous days ahead.

"We have a lot to go through," Austin replied.
"And maybe we will have to bow our heads a bit. It reminds me of a line of Cotton Mather's.
He and Ben Franklin were good friends—
though in their ideas they were as far apart
as the poles.

"Well," continued Ambassador Austin, "once the two were passing through a passage somewhere—a low-beamed place. Franklin bumped his head on a beam. Mather turned around and said to him, 'Franklin, if you will learn to lower your head when necessary, you will spare yourself many a bump.'"

Austin told the anecdote as a symbol of what he thinks may be the necessary policy of the United States today.

Allies' Retreat to Hungnam
Will Live Through History

By Bruce Bissatt

When they slashed their way victoriously out of a Chinese Red trap, some U. S. Marines, 7th Division G.I.'s and British commandos etched
a pattern of incomparable heroism in the snow and cold of northeast Korea.

This was the longest retreat in Marine annals
—nearly 50 miles of bloody struggling over icy, tortuous mountain roads. Exhausted, tense, chilled by temperatures ranging down to 25 degrees below zero, these fighting men drove to temporary haven at Hungnam through a corridor of relentless enemy fire.

The cost of this epic break-out was high.
The 1st Marine Engineer Battalion, which carved a path through the Chinese blocking the route ahead, suffered 60 per cent casualties of men and equipment. One reporter said 200 Americans were buried in a single grave, because there was no time for better arrangements.

As the gallant force hacked through to Koto on its way to the sea, it linked up with a smaller band of Marines surrounded for days by Chinese. Here's how, in the words of a correspondent, that little group looked to the larger force:

"It was a gruesome sight—wounded men with their blood frozen to their skins, their clothes stiff with ice, grotesque dead men lying across trailers and stretchers, live men stumbling along, grimacing from frost bite, using their rifles as crutches."

Once the long, bumper-to-bumper column stood almost motionless for four hours as engineers struggled to replace a bombed-out bridge.
There were similar anguished delays as craters in the slippery road were filled. To go 10 miles on one part of the escape route required 14 hours.

All the way Chinese Communists were erecting obstacles ahead of our weary men, harassing their flanks, sniping at the column's rear.
The enemy force was estimated at from three to five times greater than ours. Yet we xacted a toll of 10 Chinese for every casualty on our side.

When they finally made it down to the coastal plain, embattled Marines could find no energy for the formalities of "link-up" handshakes with the U. S. patrols who met them, nor had they many smiles for newsreel cameramen who asked them to "look happy." They'd seen and experienced too much.

"We have lost an awful lot of friends up on that plateau," said a Marine officer. "Almost everybody up there was a hero. It's just that some guys are asked what they did and tell about it, and others don't talk so good."

The schoolbooks of tomorrow will call this saga of skill and endurance and courage a retreat. But it is no surprise that the Marines who made that bitter march do not see it so.
"It was no retreat," declared a colonel with fierce pride. "It was an advance to the rear."

What man, hearing of this ordeal, dares to say it was anything less?

Looking Backward

I. A. Shepherd, a retired liveryman, better known as "Bud" Shepherd, was accidentally shot in the right eye while hunting west of

of Valda, in the rear, fired with a shotgun, part of the discharge striking Shepherd in the face.

• So They Say

If every American faced the reality of what the fulfillment of the Communist objectives would mean to him, he would be inspired to work harder to protect and preserve the individual liberty and freedom which is part and parcel of our American way of life.

STEPS IN READING THE WORD

One of the steps we have mentioned is connected with daily cultivation. When helping another, get that person to enroll in the School of the Word. On board ship I saw two men begin the day in different ways: One, a businessman, came down early, eagerly picked up the newsheet and turned at once to the stock-market report. His face lighted up or fell with the market. His happiness was dependent on happenings, so it went up and down. Another man leaned over the rail each morning reading the Word, and then he looked out over the open sea in meditation. His face wore calm and poise and strength. His happiness was dependent on eternal relationships, not subject to temporal happenings.

In reading the Word each morning take these steps:
1. Relax. You are receptive only when you are relaxed.
Nothing can be inscribed on a tense conscious mind. Let every muscle, every brain cell go limp. This attitude says, "Speak, Lord, Thy servant heareth." If you go stamping through a woods in a hurry you will see little. But sit still and the squirrels will come down the trees, and the birds will draw near, and Nature will be alive in every twig and tree and flower. You are relaxed and receptive, and Nature becomes vocal. The same with the Word.

2. Recall. Ask these questions as you read: (a) Who is writing? (b) To whom? (c) For what purpose? (d) What is he saying? (e) How does it apply to me? (f) How shall I put it into practice? (g) When do I begin.

3. Rehearse. If you find something that speaks to your condition, becomes authoritative, then roll it over and over in the mind. Rolling it over in the mind, it will become an atmosphere, then an attitude, then an act. When Jesus was pressed by temptation in the wilderness He answered in the words of Scripture. These words had become a part of Him, and in the crisis they naturally passed from the stage of assimilation and atmosphere to that of attitude and act.

O Christ, let me have the Word hidden in my heart so deeply that it becomes the hidden springs of action, determining my conduct and character. The Eternal Word spoke through Thy words—let it speak through mine. Then I shall live and move and have my being in the Eternal. Amen.

Q. and A.

You and the Service

By DOUGLAS LARSEN
NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — me any money on which to live.
Q. My husband received a "general discharge" from the army a few years ago. He was A.W.O.L., paid a fine and spent some time in the guardhouse. But it was not a dishonorable discharge. Does this keep him from any veterans' benefits? And does it keep him from enlisting?

A. As far as veterans' benefits go he is eligible for them if he meets the other qualifications.
And he can re-enlist in the service, if he was not discharged for "inaptitude."

Q. My boy friend has one leg shorter than the other. Will they take him on limited duty?

A. Except in extremely rare cases they aren't taking men for limited duty.

Q. My son has very bad ulcers.
Will that keep him out of the draft?

A. As stated here many times
it is not possible to give a flat
answer to this type of question.
The final decision is up to the doctor who makes the examination for the army. However, if he does discover a bad case of ulcers
the examining doctor will generally not recommend the man as being fit for service.

Q. My husband recently went into the army. We were not getting along very well at the time and he has since refused to send

I am destitute and he also refuses to answer any of my letters. What can I do about making him support me?

A. Write to The Commanding
General, Army Finance Center,
St. Louis, Mo. State all the facts of the case including your husband's full name, and his serial number if you know it.

Q. How do I go about getting permission to fly to Japan to live with my husband there if I pay my own way on the plane? And can any wife of a serviceman do this?

A. First you have to apply for permission from the Adjutant General of the army. Each application is decided on its own merits. No general regulations can be given on this. Then you get your passport and buy a ticket
from the airline office.

Q. My husband was in the reserves and was called to active duty. A week after he went back in they stopped taking reserves in this category. Is this fair? He had 42 points at the end of the war. Will this help him get out faster?

A. All is supposed to be fair in love and war. The point system for releasing men after World War II has nothing to do with getting out of the service now.

The Doctor Says—

Claims About Tobacco Effect
Aren't Always Established

By Edwin P. Jordan, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

All kinds of statements have been made about the harmfulness of tobacco smoking. Some of the claims for the damaging effects of smoking are pretty well established, but others are not. For example, it has been maintained that there is a general deterioration of intelligence in smokers especially if they are young. The comparison of scholastic records of smokers and non-smokers have been advanced in support of this idea, but it is questionable whether there is anything in it or not.

It is well known that excessive

• Side Glances

"Yes, we could afford to go on a nice cruise every winter
now, but why try to impress people at our age?"

'Hey, Fellas! Isn't it About Time to Get Going?'

XXVI

KIRSTEN put Carl's letter in the hip pocket of her slacks and squared herself away to take up her day.

"You see," said Carl, "she knows somebody that we shall not meet again until she is like us. But she will be all right. I am certain."

They all left the little white house together and walked to the corner. Duke trotted after them.

When the already crowded bus arrived the driver recognized Duke who tried to get on with the others. "Go home, Duke!" she said sharply.

Kirsten smiled at Margie Lou.

"You know his name?"

"Yes. He's Eddie Engstrom's dog." Margie Lou got the door shut and started the bus. Eddie stood right behind her but apparently she didn't have the lucky coin with her and couldn't see him.

Duke could, however, and followed the bus. He had no intention of letting Eddie go adventuring without him.

Kirsten wanted to talk about her husband's friend, "You must know Eddie himself."

Margie Lou turned her head to get a good look at Kirsten. One look was enough to convince anybody of Kirsten's unqualified and natural beauty. A dismaying thought struck Margie Lou.

"Are you," she asked, "the girl Eddie cares so much about?"

Kirsten laughed. It was the first thing which had struck her as funny for some time. "Eddie doesn't care much about any one girl," she said. "He likes me, I think, but it's because I'm married to his best friend. Whatever made you think Eddie was in love with somebody?"

"He told me so last night."

"That's strange—almost impossible."

"Why?"

Kirsten hesitated. "I've just received a letter from my husband written less than 10 days ago from somewhere in the South Seas and in it he spoke of Eddie's being right there beside him."

"But he was here, right beside me in this bus," Margie Lou argued. "He used to drive it before he went away."

"I know." Suddenly Kirsten stiffed a scream. "Duke—look out!"

Duke had been running along beside the rear of the bus. Right behind him with intent fury came a battered convertible. All at once Max stepped on the gas and his car shot forward, struck Duke and threw him against a parked car.

Max went on past the bus which came to a stop in the middle of the block. Margie Lou was about to get out and run back but Kirsten restrained her. "It's no use."

Neither of them saw Eddie step down to the street beside the open bus door, nor did they hear him whistle.

Duke came bounding toward Eddie, his wide tail waving from side to side. When he got there he jumped square into Eddie's arms. Eddie put his cheek against the heavy fur around the dog's neck. It felt good.

"Now you can get on the bus,
fella, and nobody'll mind," said Duke's god and master as he carried his dog aboard.

OUTSIDE the boatworks a large military formation stood at attention. It included sailors, marines, soldiers, air corpsmen and even a few nurses. About a third of the entire assembly consisted of officers, nothing higher than captain, though. Most of the lieutenants and ensigns stood in the ranks with the enlisted personnel.

Eddie and Carl saw their own squad and comprehended why there was such a large force of fighting men in a small inland city.
"What gives?" Eddie said out of the side of his mouth as he fell in alongside of Joe College.

"A review of some sort," Joe replied, also sidewise. "Here comes the C. O."

The none too military figure of the middle-aged medical officer whom they already knew took over from the Marine sergeant who had apparently lined them up.

"At ease!" said the captain. The line slackened a little. The captain looked them over with a paternal smile. "I know as well as you do that it is slightly irregular for a medical officer to take charge of combat troops, even casuals like yourselves. However, there is nothing very regular about the status of any of us under the conditions in which we now find ourselves. I have been assigned to transmit orders of the day to unattached military and naval personnel in this area."

"I suppose you men wonder why and how you arrived here this morning. I wouldn't know. I don't even know how I received orders to appear here. But I am aware that there are two things which it is my duty to tell you."

"First, we leave at dawn tomorrow. I can't tell you why or where we are going because I don't know myself. But if there is anything that you haven't attended to already you'd better get it washed up in the next 18 hours or so. I doubt if we'll be coming this way again."

"The other communication I have for you is a request that you attend the meeting to be held at the boatworks this morning. Your presence, even if no one actually knows you are here, will have a needed influence against a growing tendency among people at home to let down. It isn't necessary to tell you men that the troubles which are upsetting the world are not only serious, but also far from ended. Each of you met up with a bullet or a shell fragment which is a convincing argument. Make those who have never been shot at also realize that the preliminary parades are over and the fighting is just about to begin."

"That's all, men, until reveille tomorrow. Sergeant, take over and dismiss the outfit."

Not Dismiss Acheson, Says The President

Labels Charges Made Against Him As Being False

By D. Harold Oliver

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—(AP)—President Truman today labeled Republican charges against Secretary of State Acheson as "false" and reiterated firmly that Acheson will stay in the cabinet.

He challenged the Acheson opposition to come forward if it has any alternative foreign policy to offer.

In a vigorous defense of Acheson, Mr. Truman read a long statement to his news conference describing the secretary as "alive to communism's threat to freedom" and adding:

"If communism were to prevail in the world—as it shall not prevail—Dean Acheson would be one of the first, if not the first, to be shot by the enemies of liberty and Christianity."

"I refuse to dismiss Secretary of State Acheson," he said.

In response to questions, the President also:

1. Denied there is a wave of isolationism in the country and said all the people are behind the government in the present crisis. Don't let anyone fool you about that, he advised.

2. Said the price rollback in the automobile industry will be enforced as ordered by the economic stabilization director, despite General Motors' protests that it is discriminatory.

3. Stated he would order additional U. S. armed forces to join the Western European defense set-up under the newly appointed supreme Allied commander Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower. He said he talked to Eisenhower on the telephone last night and added that the former World War II supreme Allied commander in Europe would be taking up his new assignment as soon as possible.

negotiation of defense contracts. At the economic stabilization agency (ESA), officials said they were still studying what to do about General Motors' car sale freeze. GM, in protesting the rollback, complained that the government was acting arbitrarily and discriminating against the auto industry.

Informed by reporters of President Truman's statement, ESA authorities indicated that the agency would have a policy announcement later in the day.

How far reaching this statement would be was a question since Valentine was ill and not at his office. Price Stabilizer Michael DiSalle, the agency's number two man, was out of the city.

ESA officials told reporters last night, however, that the agency had received "rough details" of a proposal from GM to modify the rollback order.

The president's request for additional powers may require considerable debate in congress.

Preparing For Proclamation

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—(AP)—President Truman disclosed today he is preparing a Christmas proclamation calling for nationwide prayers.

He let this be known at a news conference when he was questioned about his recent letter to Rep. Hebert (D-La.) who had suggested a day of prayer.

The President wrote the Louisiana congressman that he had called for prayers in his Thanksgiving day proclamation and then went on to criticize political campaigns in Louisiana and other states.

A reporter asked Mr. Truman today if his letter to Hebert closed the subject.

Mr. Truman replied that it did not and went on to say he was preparing a Christmas proclamation that should suit the reporter and the religious leaders, too.

Call For More Production

Increase of Food And Feed of Ten Per Cent Sought

By Ovid A. Martin

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—(AP)—The government's crop production targets for 1951 will call for at least 10 per cent more food, livestock feed and fibre commodities than was harvested this year.

With a threat of war hanging over the nation, the Agriculture department is outlining production programs which, if realized, would top the record farm output of 1948.

This year's crop volume turned out to be bigger than had been forecast. In its final report of the year issued yesterday, the department said the harvest was the third largest of record. A month ago the volume was expected to be the fourth largest.

A prolonged fall season for maturing and harvesting crops helped improve the quantity and quality of many items, the department said.

The aggregate volume of this year's harvest was 126 per cent of the 1923-32 average. This compares with the record of 137.5 per cent in 1948 and 132 per cent in 1949. To pass the record, production next year will have to be at least one-tenth larger than this year.

Much of next year's increase will be sought in cotton, wheat, and corn. A very short cotton crop this year has led the government to urge farmers to produce at least 60 per cent more in 1951.

While supplies of corn are large, the government would like to see next year's crop top this year's by 15 to 20 per cent. Corn is the major raw material for production of meat, milk and poultry products.

This year's harvest was a well-balanced one, with the single exception of cotton. Only a few crops in themselves set records—soybeans, grain sorghums and sugar beets. But many crops were far above average.

In the class of large crops were corn, oats, hay, rice, potatoes, tobacco, cranberries, and alfalfa and sweet clover seeds. Larger than average crops of flaxseed sorghum silage, peanuts, sugarcane, hops, apples, pears, cherries, citrus fruits and truck crops were harvested.

The favorable size of this year's crops does not mean, however, that supplies of all foods will meet the demand. There is a possibility that the stocks of meats may not be as large as consumers would like. Increasing spending power is expected to swell the demand.

YOUNG HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT NOW ON FOOTBALL TEAM

HADACOL Supplied Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin And Iron Which His System Lacked

Delmar B. Callaway, Box 151, Church Point, Louisiana, says maybe he isn't the best football center in the country, but he'll bet his pocketknife that there isn't a boy his age who has got the energy he has. Yes, Delmar now feels great! ... and he says he has HADACOL to thank. Mrs. Callaway found that by giving her son, Delmar, HADACOL, his system overcame a deficiency of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron. Here is Delmar Callaway's own statement

"I am 13 years old and I am in the 8th grade in the Church Point High School. Last summer I didn't have a bit of energy. I didn't want to ride my bike and I didn't want to play baseball. Mother tried everything to get me to eat a good meal—but I just didn't feel like eating. Food didn't just taste good and lots of times food would upset my stomach when I did eat. Mother says I was underweight for my age. Then mother started giving me HADACOL. I know that in just a little while I started feeling a whole lot better. Now I am center on the football team. I like baseball and basketball, and I ride my bike every evening after school. Mother says she has never seen anyone with such a huge appetite. I like to take HADACOL. Mother says she is never going to let me be without HADACOL."

People of All Ages ... have been helped by HADACOL; yes, folks whose systems lacked Vitamins B1, B2, Iron and Niacin. The HADACOL formula is very effective for stomach distress, certain nervous disorders, insomnia due to upset stomach, vague aches and pains, and a general run-down condition when these troubles are caused by deficiencies of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron.

Let HADACOL Help You as it has helped thousands of others, if you suffer such deficiencies. Remember, there are no substitutes for HADACOL. Always insist on the genuine HADACOL. No risk involved. Buy a bottle of HADACOL, either the trial size, $1.25, or the large family or hospital size, $3.50, and if HADACOL doesn't help you, you will get your money back. If your druggist does not have HADACOL, order it direct from The LeBlanc Corporation, Lafayette, Louisiana. Copyright 1950, The LeBlanc Corporation.

Ten of the injured were taken to Harlem hospital. Three others were treated at the scene and went home. CAPITALISM

Nothing is superior except by comparison

WHEN we compare the conditions of nations and people in anti-capitalistic countries with the security, prosperity, happiness and well-being of our people under United States capitalism, we appreciate our privilege of living in a capitalistic, democratic country.

The basic principle of the free, capitalistic system which we have developed in our country affords opportunity to the individual who is willing to use his talents to the extent of his ability and desire to produce—to accumulate something for investment in a home, a farm, in savings accounts, bonds and other securities, life insurance, the education of his children, and comforts of life— and become a capitalist.

The following facts give us a deep appreciation of what capitalism has done and is doing for our country and its people.

Private capital in the form of taxes and purchases of United States Government Bonds made it possible for us to spend three hundred thirty billion dollars in carrying out our part of the program in winning World War II. This, of course, is unimportant when we consider the loss of life and permanent and partial disability which our youth sustained and which cannot be measured in dollars.

Our participation in World War II has left us today with a national debt of two hundred fifty-seven billion dollars, but on the credit side we find that our annual national income, at the current rate, is equal to 90% of our total national debt. Of this total national debt, thirty-nine billion dollars are in treasury obligations owned by Government agencies, so our net debt is slightly over two hundred eighteen billion dollars.

The United States free enterprise business system is operating at its highest level, furnishing employment to sixty-two million people at the highest hourly and weekly earnings ever recorded. Stockholders and corporations, after paying the highest peacetime taxes in the post-war years, have had the highest net average earnings in history from their investment.

Our farmers had cash income from marketing last year amounting to twenty-seven billion five hundred million dollars, the highest on record.

Total farm assets of our country amount to slightly more than one hundred twenty-seven billion dollars, against which there is an indebtedness of only twelve billion four hundred million dollars. Thus our farmers have ownership equity of over 90 per cent in their farms.

In non-farm homes, counting apartment buildings with four or less families, and all valued at a total of two hundred billion dollars, our home owners have an equity of one hundred fifty-eight billion dollars—a substantial ownership of 79 per cent.

Therefore, as a result of the opportunity provided by our free-enterprise capitalistic system, the people of our nation have a free and clear ownership in their homes and farms of 83.4 per cent.

Our people have savings of more than one hundred thirty-six billion dollars in government bonds and savings accounts.

An additional ninety-seven billion dollars are on deposit in commercial bank accounts.

Our men and women have a cash investment of sixty billion dollars in life insurance policies.

A high percentage of our working people are provided with unemployment insurance, sickness, accident and retirement benefits, financed by employers, employees and government. Others who are not covered by these plans and who find themselves in need are provided for by governmental and social institutions.

We are increasing our efforts to improve the standard of living of the people in the lower income brackets.

The United States, with only six per cent of the world population and seven per cent of its land area, under its democratic, capitalistic system, before World War II, produced forty-seven per cent of the world's manufactured goods, but what is more important, ninety per cent of that production was consumed within our own borders. Today we are producing over fifty per cent of the world's manufactured goods, of which a substantial percentage is for other countries.

Capitalism is backing freedom of worship and providing increasing educational opportunities by constantly giving more and more support to the two things upon which our democratic, cultural civilization depends—spiritual and educational values.

We have a permanent investment in churches and schools of eighteen billion five hundred million dollars and are spending annually eight billion dollars for religious and educational purposes.

Membership in the churches is increasing at a much faster rate than the increase in the population, and in our Sunday Schools at an even greater rate.

In the past thirty years, elementary school enrollment has increased 13.5 per cent, high school enrollment 146.1 per cent and college and university enrollment 351.6 per cent.

Our public school expenditures per pupil enrolled have gone up from $48.02 in 1920 to $132.06 in 1947, or 175.0 per cent.

Since 1920 the population of our country has increased 43 per cent and the investment in school and college equipment has increased 571 per cent.

Since the beginning of our industrial and scientific development in the early 1800's, the capitalistic system, due to individual freedom, initiative and ingenuity, has given the world more of the comforts and conveniences of life than mankind had received in the previous 5000 years of civilization.

Under this system our people as a whole are happy and united, are increasing their capital and enjoying a fuller spiritual, cultural and material life.

Today our scientific and industrial knowledge and experience in the various fields of peaceful activity are open to the rest of the world, and in this respect we have joined with other like-minded nations in contributing to the technical assistance program of the United Nations.

No nation, no individual, no venture, no private or public institution, no program for the welfare of people can progress without capital.

It is each individual's duty to contribute to the preservation, protection and improvement of our democratic civilization on a basis which is sound and fair to all our people.

Greyhounds Vie With S-C Tigers Tonite

The Windsor Greyhounds will offer the opposition for the high-riding Smith-Cotton Tigers tonight on the Windsor court. The Bengals have won six of seven contests this season and walked away with the pre-season CEMO tourney at Columbia in early December. The Greyhounds dropped their only decision to the Clinton Cardinals Friday night by a one point margin. In this game the Greyhounds all-state center, Carl Gregory, poured through 22 points to lead the Windsor useless cause.

Larry Bates, former Warrensburg Mule star and now coach of the Greyhounds, took over the coaching duties of the Henry county five last season. The team entered the class "B" State Tournament at Springfield and went into the semi-finals before they were knocked off by the crowned champs, Ozark. They also dropped their contest in the battle for third place and returned to Windsor with fourth position tucked under their belt.

Coach Jim Ball will take an 11 man squad on the trip. They are as follows: Bill McCrary, Bill Morgan, Bob Shawver, Ed Johnson, Claude Murphy, Bill Cooper, Richard Lanning, Floyd Burton, Tom Menefee, Pat Forbis and Don Potter.

Missouri Valley Loses to Emporia

By the Associated Press

M.C.A.U. basketball teams won two of their three games with non-conference opponents last night.

Culver-Stockton defeated Eastern New Mexico, 61-52, at Canton, Mo. The defending champion Central College Eagles beat Illinois College of Jacksonville, 66-53, at Fayette, while Missouri Valley was taking a whipping 75-70 overtime beating from College of Emporia at Emporia.

It was a nip-and-tuck game at Canton until the closing minutes of play. Guard Bob Logan scored 20 points for undefeated Culver-Stockton.

Central got off to a slow start, but with Ed Christian counting

18 points dumped Illinois College for its sixth victory in nine games.

Missouri Valley lost to College of Emporia in a game that was tied 14 times and saw the lead change 28 times. The Vikings scored first in the overtime on Art Johnson's fielder, but fell behind as Paul Burke scored a field goal and a free throw and was through for the night.

Drury won its fourth game in five starts by beating Fort Leonard Wood 69-63. Its only loss was to the Army team earlier in the season. Marv Klein made 28 points for Fort Wood, and John Kiefer got 19 for Drury. It was Fort Wood's second loss in nine games.

Sooners To Receive O'Donnell Trophy At Swank Affair

OKLAHOMA CITY, Dec. 19—(AP)—Bowl games and All-America players are old stuff to University of Oklahoma football fans, but the 1950 grid machine is the first to come home with a national championship.

Oklahoma followers will hold a swanky trophy dinner tomorrow night and nationally-known sports writers and coaches will sit in.

Ted Smits, general sports editor of the Associated Press, will be the speaker. Notre Dame Coach Frank Leahy will present the O'Donnell Memorial Trophy to Bud Wilkinson, Oklahoma's young head coach.

The trophy goes annually to the college football team ranked No. 1 in the final Associated Press poll. The trophy is sponsored by Notre Dame which won it last year.

The Rev. Bill Alexander, Oklahoma City pastor, will be master of ceremonies. The entire Oklahoma varsity and freshman football teams will be guests of honor.

Sugar Bowl Prexy To Attend

Another guests will be Charles Zatarain, president of the New Orleans Sugar Bowl, where Oklahoma plays Kentucky Jan. 1.

Missouri Grabs Eighth Spot In National Basketball Poll

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK, Dec. 19—(AP)—Unbeaten Kentucky, a stunning 68-39 winner over Kansas, is the No. 1 college basketball team in the nation, according to the first Associated Press poll of the season.

Five straight wins convinced 93 of 165 voting sports writers and sportscasters that Coach Adolph Rupp's unbeaten Wildcats are tops at this stage of the campaign. Their point total of 1,451 was some 150 better than runner-up Bradley, last year's regular season poll winner.

Bradley Ranks Second

Bradley and North Carolina State, winners of six straight through Saturday's games, each received 20 first place votes. Bradley took second position on points, 1,302 to 1,105.

The Rev. Bill Alexander, Oklahoma City pastor, will be master of ceremonies. The entire Oklahoma varsity and freshman football teams will be guests of honor.

The trophy is the fourth of its kind. Notre Dame retired the Rissman trophy in 1930 by winning it three times. Minnesota took the Rockne trophy in 1940, and Notre Dame won the Williams cup in 1947.

Indiana and Oklahoma Aggies, another pair of unbeaten clubs, followed next in order. City College of New York, which had both the NCAA and Invitation Tournaments last spring, was sixth. CCNY was upset by Missouri.

Then came Long Island university, unbeaten in three starts, Missouri, UCLA and Toledo. Toledo has shown surprising strength in knocking off Illinois, Denver, Niagara and Texas Tech.

Spivey Does A Job

Bill Spivey, Kentucky's seven-foot Junior, did a job on 6-9 Clyde Lovellette, the Kansas star, in Saturday's ball game. Spivey held his man to ten points while racking up 22 as his contribution to the surprising score. Kansas, a one-point winner over Manhattan at Madison Square Garden, went into the game unbeaten.

Next test for Kentucky's powerhouse comes against St. John's of Brooklyn at the Garden Saturday night.

team that has won decisively from SMU, Texas and Minnesota. Long Island, figured to be one of the nation's powerhouse clubs, met Cortland Teachers tonight. The Blackbirds date with UCLA Thursday should be one of the week's high spots.

Since Missouri lost to Washington of St. Louis in its opener, the club has swept three in a row. After Arkansas tonight they are idle until the Big Seven tournament next week.

UCLA, beaten only by Oregon so far, plays Bradley, Long Island and Iowa all on the road this week. Toledo takes on Miami and eastern Kentucky, which lost to North Carolina State by only one point in overtime.

Tigers Defeat Arkansas 54-32

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 19.—(P)—Surprising Missouri, considered a weak link among Big Seven Conference basketball teams a month ago, is forging a remarkable non-league record against major opponents.

Last night Coach Sparky Stalcup's Tigers added Arkansas to their list of victims. They also have beaten City college of New York, Ohio State and Texas Christian by decisive scores.

The Missourians, now rated No. 8 among the nation's top teams, haven't been defeated since their opener with Washington of St. Louis.

Missouri beat Arkansas 54-32 without an outstanding star although center Bill Stauffer extended himself excellently under both baskets. The Tigers were ahead 28-8 at halftime.

Kansas State got back on the winning track by beating Wisconsin, 77-58, at Manhattan. It was the fifth victory for Jack Gardner's K-Staters in seven starts.

A Nicholas, guard, canned 16 points for Wisconsin, but he got little help from a bunch of cold teammates who couldn't find the basket.

Colorado dropped a 62-60 decision to Stanford in San Francisco's Cow Palace. Stanford's Ed Tucker scored the winning goal in the final seconds.

Four games involving Big Seven teams are scheduled tonight. Oklahoma (3-0), The Loop's only unbeaten team, will open its eastern swing with Holy Cross.

Colorado continues its western junket against Santa Clara, Kansas meets Springfield, Mass., college at Lawrence, Kas., and Nebraska takes on Iowa State Teachers at Lincoln, Nebr.

Oklahoma's Sooners admittedly a defense-minded basketball team, will engage Holy Cross' young and promising crusaders in the feature event of the Boston Garden's 1950-51 intercollegiate doubleheader.

Oklahoma has made effective use of its tight zone defense while running up victories over Southern Methodist, Texas and Minnesota at its home court.

In their first major test, the Holy Cross youngsters were nosed out, 51-49, by St. John's after notching two warm-up victories.

Hearn and Maglie Most Effective

By Will Grimley
NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—(P)—Two fugitives from the bullpen—Jim Hearn and Sal Maglie, both of the New York Giants—turned out to be the most effective pitchers in the National League last season.

Official averages, out today, showed that Hearn, a St. Louis Cardinals castoff, led in the department that determines mound greatness with an earned run average of 2.49.

His teammate, Maglie, who wore his trousers thin on the bullpen bench for half the campaign, produced the circuit's highest winning percentage with 18 victories and four defeats for .818.

Between them, they were 1-2 in both important phases of pitching excellence—earned run average and winning percentage.

Maglie was second to Hearn in E. R. A. with 2.71. Hearn followed Maglie in the percentage list with 11-4 for .733.

Nose prints of identical twin calves are likely to be similar, just as fingerprints of identical humans often are similar.

Marion Probably Still Play Short

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 19.—(P)—Marty Marion, new manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, probably will be able to continue playing shortstop for the club.

That was the word after a 45-minute operation yesterday for removal of a torn cartilage from his right knee, a condition that handicapped Marion last season.

The attending surgeon described the operation as successful and said Marion should be able to play ball next season. Marion is in Jewish hospital here and probably will be released before Christmas.

Women Try to Keep Club Going

IOLA, Kas., Dec. 19.—(P)—A woman will lead a drive by baseball fans here to keep Iola in the Kansas-Oklahoma-Missouri baseball league next season.

The club's board of directors recommended at a meeting of fans last night that Iola not attempt to field a team.

But the fans, composing the 600-member Iola Athletic Association, drafted Mrs. Lee L. Moore as chairman of a committee to raise $10,000, liquidate the association debt and place a team in the KOM if the league operates in 1951. They started the drive by pledging $2,100 in donations.

Iola has been a member of the circuit all of the five seasons it has operated.

Check In Today For Shrine East-West Game
SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 19.—(P)—Football squads of the Shrine East-West charity game December 30 were to assemble here today for official check-in.

Seventeen eastern stars and 12 western players had arrived by last night, with the rest to come in by train and plane today. They will be entertained until Thursday, when they will go into training quarters, the West at Stanford and the East at Santa Clara.

Al Kozar Eigns Up With White Sox
CHICAGO, Dec. 19.—(P)—The Chicago White Sox today announced second baseman Al Kozar has signed a 1951 contract, raising to 10 the number of players in the pale hose fold for next season.

Heath to Wear Dazzling Shirt

NORMAN, Okla., Dec. 19.—(P)—A bright-colored sports shirt is going to make its third trip to the Sugar Bowl with the Oklahoma football team.

It's to grace the broad shoulders of fullback Leon Heath. By tradition, he's duty bound to wear it to New Orleans Jan. 1. The shirt has had a prominent part in the history-making 31-game winning streak established by Coach Bud Wilkinson's teams.

The tale of this particular shirt goes back to 1948. Fullback Myrle Greathouse bought a pair of cowboy boots. He needed a loud shirt to go with them.

His mother-in-law, Mrs. W. K. Luden, Amarillo, Tex., heard about Myrle's desire and made him a real eye-knocker-out of a shirt. It was the lulu of the campus.

Wilkinson called a squad meeting before the Sooners headed west for its opening game in 1948 against Santa Clara.

"There'll be no slacks, bright-colored shirts, two toned shoes and sports coats," the affable coach ruled. We'll wear business suits.

Many players pleaded with Wilkinson to make an exception—let Greathouse wear his new shirt—he considered it lucky. The shirt stayed in Norman, Oklahoma lost to Santa Clara, 20-17. After the game Greathouse said to Wilkinson:

Coach, guess I should have worn that shirt."

"Yes, guess you should have, Myrle," Wilkinson responded ruefully. He added: "From now on you can wear the shirt on all trips."

That was the beginning of a great era in Oklahoma football. Greathouse wore the shirt the rest of the season—just like Wilkinson wears his grey suit and red tie for all games.

After the Sooners went unbeaten the rest of the 1948 season, Greathouse willed the shirt to Mammoth guard Stan West.

West somehow managed to squeeze his bulky 240-pound frame into the shirt. He wore it throughout the 1949 season. He passed it along to Heath after graduation last spring.

"If we beat Kentucky I'm going to give the shirt to Bert Clark to wear through his senior year," Heath said.

"If we lose, well, perhaps we'll just abandon the shirt because by then all tradition will be broken."

It's a sure bet, though, when the Oklahoma victory march ends, the shirt—and Wilkinson's grey suit and red tie—will be retired to a position of honor in a trophy case.

Pledged to Fraternity
The University of Kansas chapter of Delta Sigma Pi, international honor business fraternity at Lawrence, recently announced the pledging of Robert Lennartz of 612 West Third street.

Mr. Lennartz is a junior in the school of business at the university.

Reports Sweaters Stolen

Next CBC Game On January 11

The next home game for the Central Business college basketball team is scheduled for the 14th of January, with the Indiana Clark Twins.

The Clark Twins won the national family basketball tournament in Wilson, North Carolina, last season when they rolled over 13 other teams. After winning that tournament they went to Omaha, Neb., and captured the Moss Twins basketball championship.

This season the Twins will play no less than 100 games. Cage experts who have seen them perform admit they know what the game is about. Their manager, V. P. Caldwell, says the Clarks are getting better all the time. The Twins are currently touring in the eastern section of the country before heading west. They are playing before enthusiastic crowds, and it does without saying that they are the big features of all double headers.

On January 18, the Business College quintet meets the House of David team. As everyone knows this is the team that not only plays a good brand of basketball, but also known as a novelty on the court.

Negotiations are still under way for the Business College quintet to meet some leading Negro team after the local Lions club tournament if it is possible for the arrangements to be made.

Moose Club to Play Houstonia Tonight
The Moose basketball cagers will meet Houstonia tonight on the court at the Convention hall in Liberty park at 8:00 o'clock. This will be the second time the two teams have met this year. Houstonia was defeated by the Moose team the first time by a score of 55-46.

This is the first game since the Central Business college tournament, when the Moose team placed fourth. Coach "Bud" Michaelis has not stated who will replace Dale Whitfield, who sprained an ankle during the CBC tournament.

Hubbard Plays Here Wednesday
The Hubbard high school Tigers will meet the Springfield, Mo., Lincoln high school basketball team Wednesday night. The game will start promptly at 8 o'clock. This being the last game before the holidays Coach Akins thinks the public will miss the game of the season if it misses this one. Springfield has a stout, stubborn and determined team. They play to win.

"GENERAL WU IS A STOOGE..."—A group of Chinese-Americans picket the entrance of the United Nations General Assembly hall at Flushing, N. Representing 60 Chinese-American organizations, the pickets carry signs declaring "The UN has no room for aggressors," and "Gen. Wu Hsiu-chuan (Peking's delegate to the UN) is a stooge of Moscow."

Program by PTA At Otterville

The Otterville P. T. A. held its regular meeting at the Presbyterian church, Tuesday evening, December 12. The meeting was opened with the congregation singing, "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear," led by Mrs. Danny Glenn. Rev. H. A. Wood then led in prayer.

Mrs. Monroe Neale, president, presided over the business session after which a very interesting program was presented by parents and children below school age, exclusively, arranged by the program committee, Mrs. Earl Leaton, Mrs. Danny Glenn, and Mrs. Lewis Zumsteg and directed by Mrs. Leaton.

The program was as follows: "Joy to the World" by the chorus, sang as they took their places on the platform. "There's a Song in the Air" by the chorus, recitation—Pam Dunham: "White Christmas" by the chorus; scripture reading, "The Christmas Story" by Rev. H. A. Wood; solo, "Winter Wonderland" by the chorus; recitation by Bobby Holman: "Silent Night" by the chorus with a solo by Donald Zumsteg.

The chorus was accompanied by Miss Anne Neale. The program was also favored with a visit from Santa Claus.

The Parent Education class will meet December 28 with Mrs. Lester Young. Mrs. Loren Bane will be the program leader.

The next regular P. T. A. meeting will be January 9. The program leaders are Mr. Gail Oehrke and Mr. Danny Glenn.

Fatally Stabbed Over Bus Fare

HOUSTON, Tex., Dec. 19—(P)—A 14-year-old boy was stabbed to death Monday night because he refused to give up his 15-cent bus fare as tribute to a 19-year-old youth.

Police today arrested a suspect, but he was not charged immediately.

From witnesses, police developed this story:

The youth approached David

Rodriguez, the victim; Manuel Zapata, 17, and Zapata's brother, Refugia, 14, David's companions, with a knife and demanded their money. David refused. Zapata gave him five cents. Then the youth struck David and the Zapata brothers ran.

They returned later to find David dead from five stab wounds. His 15 cents still was in his pocket.

Don't Be Satisfied With Symptomatic Relief! It's Possible to

RELIEVE THE CAUSE OF ACHES and PAINS IN ARMS, LEGS, BACK, SHOULDERS

when due to lack of Vitamins B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, Iron and Niacin in the system!

A Marked Improvement Is Often Noticed Within a Few Days

If you've been suffering from cruel, stabbing aches and pains due to lack of Vitamins B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, Iron and Niacin in your system—there's no need for you to be satisfied with symptomatic relief. Thanks to HADACOL it's possible to relieve the REAL and UNDERLYING CAUSE of such distress due to these deficiencies. AND JUST LISTEN TO THIS! Continued use of this great HADACOL helps prevent such miserable aches and pains from coming back! It sounds almost too good to be true, doesn't it? BUT IT IS TRUE and here is why ...

How HADACOL Works

HADACOL not only supplies weak, deficient systems with extra quantities of Vitamins B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, Iron and Niacin but also beneficial amounts of Calcium and Phosphorus—elements so vital to help maintain good health and to guard against such deficiency ailments.

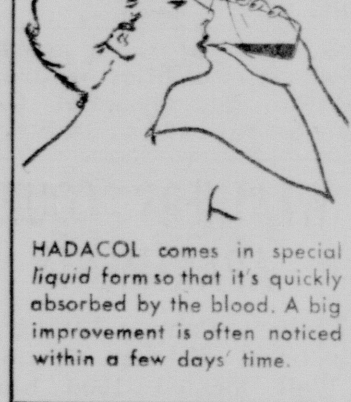

Many people with such deficiencies—who have waited and hoped for relief for some time—are now able to live happy and comfortable lives again, thanks to HADACOL.

A big improvement is often noticed within a few days' time. You start getting that wonderful, wonderful HADACOL feeling everyone is talking about and you'll want to keep it. And chances are you will if you just take HADACOL faithfully.

Be Fair to Yourself

If you've been suffering pain in your arms, shoulders, legs, back or hands (due to deficiencies of Vitamins B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, Iron and Niacin) you owe it to yourself to give HADACOL a fair and honest trial. Be fair to yourself! Why suffer so and be such a burden to yourself and family—when relief is at hand right at your drugstore.

Remember, HADACOL is not a quick-acting pill which gives symptomatic relief. HADACOL actually relieves the REAL CAUSE of nagging aches and pains when due to such deficiencies. A trial-size bottle costs only $1.19. The large family or hospital size, $3.39.

HADACOL comes in special liquid form so that it's quickly absorbed by the blood. A big improvement is often noticed within a few days' time.

WHY HADACOL COMES IN SPECIAL LIQUID FORM

HADACOL comes in special liquid form. In this way the important elements of HADACOL are quickly and easily absorbed and assimilated by the blood. Why continue to "doubt"—give HADACOL a chance to help you if you are so troubled. Recommended by hundreds upon hundreds of doctors. It must be good!

Just a Few of Thousands of Folks With Such Deficiencies Who Have Been Helped

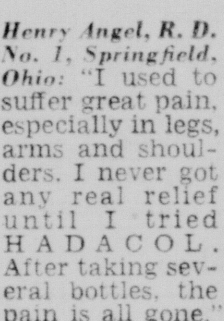

Mrs. Nora Beshira, 633 South Knight, Wichita, Kansas: "I suffered from nagging aches and pains and had trouble sleeping nights. After taking one bottle of HADACOL, my pains went. I want to tell all the people I can how HADACOL helped me."

Mr. Will Borge, 501 2nd Avenue North, Texas City, Texas, who had such a deficiency: "I suffered so from aches and pains. At night my fingers and wrist would ache badly. I took HADACOL and after the tenth bottle I feel like a new man. Thanks to HADACOL I am now able to work hard and enjoy life."

Mrs. Eleanor D. Wiley, P. O. Box 2, Ruston, Louisiana: "I couldn't sleep. I had such pain. I seemed to ache all over. HADACOL testimonials convinced me I should give this wonderful product a chance and after only half a bottle, I realized this was what I needed. I feel better than I have in years."

Henry Angel, R. D. No. 1, Springfield, Ohio: "I used to suffer great pain, especially in legs, arms and shoulders. I never got any real relief until I tried HADACOL. After taking several bottles, the pain is all gone."

"If there is any person in the town who feels emotion caused by this man's death, show that person to me, Spirit, I beseech you!" cried Scrooge. Whereupon the Spirit of Christmas Yet to Come showed Scrooge the dead man's debtors, who were happy indeed.

"Let me see some tenderness connected with a death," said Scrooge. And then he saw the Cratchits' living room, where the family bitterly mourned the death of Tiny Tim.

"Spectre," quavered Scrooge, "tell me what man that was whom we saw lying dead!"

Hard Blow to India Due to the Death Of Sardar Patel

asset to the regime because he was a "practical" political and next to Nehru the most powerful influence in the Congress party which is the government organization. I emphasize the term "practical" because that quality helped counter-balance the visionary news held by some of the old workers for independence.

It was Patel, by the way, who performed the Herculean task of bringing the some 600 princely states into the structure of the new democracy. It required a man both tough and practical to take away the thrones of these descendants of long lines of rulers and make 'em like it.

Lost Close Friend

Now that Nehru has lost this beloved friend, he may call on another old-timer — Chakravarti Rajagopalachari (better known throughout the Indian peninsula as "C.R.") — to succeed Patel. "C.R." is 71 years old, and fought side by side with the late Mahatma Gandhi and Nehru in the nationalist movement. He is a lawyer and is one of the most highly respected men in all India. He is so well known that nobody calls him anything but "C.R."

"C.R." is a Brahmin, the highest caste of Hindu, and is intensely religious. However, his daughter married Gandhi's son, a Hindu of a lower caste. He has always been a champion of Hindu-Muslim good will. He was formerly governor general of India, and is now minister without portfolio in Nehru's government.

Another strong man among Nehru's captains — and a most interesting personality — is Dr. Ambedkar. He used to be the leader and champion of the millions of India's "untouchables," the Hindu outcasts who were so low as to be outside the caste system. These unfortunates were compelled to live in direct poverty apart from their "betters," and managed to exist by performing such lowly duties as emptying night slops for their masters.

I visited Dr. Ambedkar in his New Delhi home in '43 and found him a delightful gentleman. While born as an untouchable he attracted the attention of the late Gaekwar of Baroda, who had the young man educated in England, America and Germany. Then Ambedkar came back to fight for his people.

Untouchability has been abolished — at least in theory. The doctor is now minister for law in the cabinet.

To return to the Maharajah Jam Sahab of Navanagar, he is one of the few Indian princes who early recognized the writing on the wall as meaning "finis" to the reigns of these potentates who had the power of life and death over their subjects, and amassed wealth beyond imagination. He took his demotion with a grin, surrendered his torrential income to the new government, and fitted himself successfully into the Democratic regime.

Hal Boyle Reports from Korea

By William J. Waugh
(For Hal Boyle)

WITH U. S. SEVENTH REGIMENT, Korea — (AP) — It was late in November. The allies still were on the offensive in northwest Korea. A small reconnaissance patrol, 26 men in seven jeeps, drove cautiously toward the small village.

The patrol, under Lt. Richard Talbert of Saranac Lake, N. Y., had seen no enemy during the scouting that took them through the city of Ipsok and a mile beyond.

In the small village beyond Ipsok, Talbert halted the patrol and got out of the lead jeep to question civilians. And it was then that hundreds of Chinese entrenched on nearby hills opened up.

The first flare of gunfire destroyed Talbert's jeep. The Reds directed a hail of mortar fire, machinegun and small arms bullets at the patrol, but the Americans held them off for 30 minutes.

Talbert's men got six jeeps out of the line of fire and started back down the road.

"We could never have done that except for two men on machine guns," Talbert recalled. "One was Sgt. Takeo Ono of Honolulu. The other was a sergeant who was wounded and taken prisoner. I've recommended both for silver stars."

The sergeant's name was withheld.

During the first part of the patrol's retreat, the road ran parallel to Red positions in the flanking hills. Talbert, a radio operator, an interpreter and an engineer from an army engineer company remained in the village.

A shell hit the gasoline tank of the rear jeep and two men abandoned it. Then the Chinese swarmed down the hillside. One of the two — a corporal — turned around and saw that his companion was surrendering to two Chinese.

The corporal shot one of the Chinese through the head with a pistol. The other Chinese was so excited that the other American grabbed up his gun and shot him. Intense gunfire forced two men in another of the six jeeps to dive into a ditch. Both were taken prisoner.

Back in the village, Talbert and his three companions decided to make a run for it. They started across a broad flat field in back of the village.

"It was like a comedy in the movies," Talbert said. "The Chinks were coming off that hill and the four of us were running like mad, shedding our outer clothes as we ran."

The enemy soldiers stopped to look at Talbert's wrecked jeep. That enabled the four Americans to increase their lead from 50 yards to about 150.

"I wasn't worrying about being hit by gunfire but kept worrying they'd run us into the ground," Talbert said. "We were nearly exhausted and all of us were puffing like mad."

Albert said "We'd run about a half mile when out of the sky came four Shooting Stars (F-80 Jets) with rockets firing at the Chinks chasing us across the field."

"I didn't even look back. I just kept running but, man, was I happy."

The four ran on for about a quarter of a mile and then from sheer exhaustion had to stop. Talbert looked back and the Chinese soldiers were moving back to the hill from where they had jumped the patrol.

"It was a miracle we escaped. They shot everything at us but the kitchen sink."

The patrol, airmen estimated, had been jumped by 400 Chinese. American losses were two wounded, two men taken prisoner and two jeeps destroyed.

Talbert and the three men with him walked five miles across the country and two hours later joined up with the rear elements of his unit.

"I lost everything," he said. "All my gear was in the first jeep destroyed. Running across that field I threw everything away except my shirt, pants and shoes and an M-1 rifle, two clips of ammo and a pistol. My wallet was in one of the coats I discarded."

The next day the patrol returned to the same area. Talbert went out in the field again.

"I found my wallet and all my dough," he said, happily.

One hundred million leaflets prepared by psychological warfare personnel were dropped in Korea in the first 125 days of operations.

Shoes for American soldiers in Korea range in size from 4 to 15.

Press For New Defense Meet

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19—(P)—The United States plans to press promptly for a new meeting of the 21 American republics to tighten hemisphere defenses against threats of Communist aggression.

Officials said Monday it is hoped a meeting of foreign ministers can be held in Washington by mid-February. President Truman was represented as anxious for a conference at this time to show that although U. S. interests may appear to be elsewhere "we have our own hemisphere relations very much to the fore in our thinking."

Secretary of State Acheson announced Saturday this government wants the meeting. U. S. delegate Paul C. Daniels is expected to submit a formal proposal Wednesday to the council of the organization of American states. The other American governments will be polled on the date that would be most convenient. A two-thirds vote is binding.

Talks on Historical Society to PTA

The meeting of the Dresden P.T.A. was held at Dresden school. The president, Mrs. Frank Van Natta called the meeting to order and Gene Woodward read a poem, "There Will Always Be a Christmas."

Carols were sung by the group. Following the regular business session, the teacher, Miss Lula Wheeler introduced Judge J. V. Kesterson from the Pettis County Historical society, who gave a short talk. He, in turn, presented J. L. Curry, who told of the organization and of the acquiring of various objects which were of interest. He reminded that we should appreciate our heritage and realize that our right to acquire an education and worship as we desire are privileges denied many people these days and at this Christmas season we must pray for peace.

Judge Kesterson then introduced J. O. Jenkins who showed interesting pictures taken in the various sections of the United States and told the story of each one.

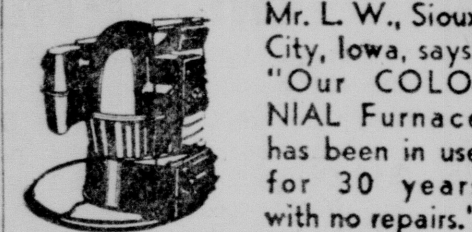

The hostesses, Mrs. Richard Mills, Mrs. Stanley Woodward and Mrs. Charles Romig served refreshments.

December Meet Of Neighbors Club

The Neighborly Neighbors extension club held its December meeting at the home of Mrs. Charles Singer, with part of the afternoon spent in tacking a comfort. Because of the illness of the president, Mrs. Tom Conaway, Mrs. Singer presided at the business meeting. Roll call was answered by telling, "What I Want for Christmas." Mrs. Myron Harper was devotional leader, reading from the book of Luke. Christmas an convalescent cards were signed. A few plans were made for the next meeting, and it was voted to continue having hostess gifts. Mrs. Harper and Catherine Scott were appointed as a program committee.

Following adjournment, gifts were exchanged, each one pulling a string leading into the box of presents, and taking the gift on the end. Hostess gifts were presented and opened. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Frankie Younger was a guest.

The January meeting will be with Mrs. Tom Raines.
